Senator Hoar's bill to provide for a temporary executive in case of the death of both the President and Vice President during their term of office is in no sense a party measure, nor did it create party antagonism in the Senate last winter, for that chamber adopted it unanimously. And, under the existing cirumstances, there can be no excuse for opposing it in any quarter. The fact that its auspices are republican is an additional argument in its vantage by passing an act vesting the succespro tempore of the Senate. It is very desirable that the Vice President be of the same political party as the President, though in the early

The Philadelphia Times says that not only has the office been managed in the interest of the republican party, but it has Fine French Dressed Dolls, from 990 not been managed well. It testifies that there Fine Wax Dressed Dolls, from 25c. is "the worst postal service in Philadelphia of Unbreakable Dressed Dolls, from 25c. any city in the Union," and it adds that the French Dolls, kid body, from 99c. change was made in part in consequence of the French Dolls, jointed body, from 49c.

The conservatives keep on gaining in the par liamentary elections, and it is pretty certain now that the two great parties will be so nearly equal in numbers that Parnell will hold the lance of power. The elections show that John Buil had become a little nervous. He was afraid that his "institutions" were in danger, Steam Engines, upright and horizontal. and ran to the tories to be protected against Steam Propellers, Steam Locomotives, with train or novelties. This appears very clearly from the single. great falling off in the radical strength in many Mechanical Toys of every description.

If Spain changes its form of government it is more likely to be in the line of broader institutions rather than towards imperialism.

The panic in Panama canal shares caused by a report of the death of de Lessens is a proof of the shaky condition of the enterprise. The prospects of the canal are gloomy enough now, and upon the death of its guiding spirit they would be snuffed out entirely.
